

Underline two words in each sentence below that are synonyms of each other?

- 1 Peter had nothing but admiration for his wonderful, loving Grandma; he had been raised to have respect for his elders.
- 2 Julian was very upset when he was separated from his twin brother on his first day at school; they hadn't been apart before.
- 3 Lucy wondered whether she had bought enough wine for her party but in the end she had ample supplies.
- 4 Carol knew that inviting seven of Aaron's rowdy friends over for a sleepover would be hard work, but she had no idea that they would be quite so boisterous.
- 5 Marcia was worried that she hadn't prepared enough food for the party, but in the end she had more than sufficient.
- 6 It made Trisha so sad when she heard that her best friend Hannah was unhappy about losing her netball match to a rival team.
- 7 Tony showed enormous courage when he jumped into the river to save a drowning child; he was later awarded a medal for his outstanding bravery.
- 8 Peter knew that climbing the Three Peaks was going to be difficult, but he hadn't realised exactly just how challenging it would prove to be.
- 9 Claire wondered why Dulcie was being so secretive about where she had been; it wasn't like her to be so tight-lipped.
- 10 Rosie could expect to achieve at the very least a minimum of 40 points in the competition.

Antonyms

Underline two words in each sentence below that are antonyms of each other?

- 1 Sophie can follow simple instructions to make chocolate brownies but she can't manage a more complex recipe for meringues.
- 2 Phil had to wait patiently for three weeks while the garage repaired his damaged car.
- 3 Tony preferred to travel to London by rail, but was frustrated that the trains were seldom on time and he was often late for work.
- 4 Tom had always enjoyed vegetables, but he'd never tried asparagus.
- 5 Amy had to repeat the same question several times before she got a sensible answer.
- 6 After an awful, bumpy flight, the Jones family were thrilled to reach their delightful villa.
- 7 Sienna always tried hard to get all her spellings correct so was disappointed to get one wrong.
- 8 Despite constant reminders to be punctual for his appointment, Gary was really late yet again.
- 9 Although Amy was delighted with her new kitchen, she was dismayed when the builders presented her with a bill for twice as much as their original quote.
- 10 Maisie wanted to have an expensive resort holiday, with luxury accommodation and first class flights, but Tom wanted to save money and choose a cheap destination.

Synonyms

1	admiration & respect
2	separated & apart
3	enough & ample
4	rowdy & boisterous
5	win & victory
6	sad & unhappy
7	courage & bravery
8	difficult & challenging
9	secretive & tight-lipped
10	least & minimum

Antonyms

1	simple & complex
2	repaired & damaged
3	seldom & often
4	always & never
5	question & answer
6	awful & delightful
7	correct & wrong
8	punctual & late
9	delighted & dismayed
10	expensive & cheap