

In the following sentences there are some spelling mistakes. On each line there is either one mistake or no mistake. Find the group of words with the mistake in it and circle the letter. If there is no mistake, circle the N in the box on the right.

- 1 There was no return adress on the back of the brown cardboard envelope. N
- 2 Paul's mum had to email the school office to explain her son's absense. N
- 3 Maisie's maths teacher was beginning to notice definatate signs of improvement. N
- 4 The weather was extremely changable throughout the whole of July. N
- 5 Although not completely disasterous, it was still disappointing to have lost the match. N
- 6 Although not proven, there are many people who believe in the existance of unicorns. N
- 7 Neil's granny had always found detective novels particularly fascinating. N
- 8 Paul wasn't ever frightened by thunder, but he was scared of lightening. N
- 9 Although not strictly neccessary, the students were all asked to bring sandwiches. N
- 10 William Shakespeare was the most famous playwright of the Elizabethan age. N
- 11 Clare fried potatos and bacon and served them with crusty French bread. N
- 12 Kieran's father was a professer of mathematics at Cambridge University. N
- 13 Martin couldn't decide wether he wanted to go bowling or watch a movie. N
- 14 Sophie had to separete the egg yolks from the whites in her complicated cake recipe. N
- 15 Gary had a huge arguement with his neighbour when he chopped a tree down. N

Spellings

1	B	address
2	D	absence
3	C	definite
4	B	changeable
5	B	disastrous
6	D	existence
7	N	-
8	D	lightning
9	B	necessary
10	C	playwright
11	A	potatoes
12	B	professor
13	B	whether
14	A	separate
15	B	argument