

1

"Lets go to the beach!" said Daisy's mum when she saw it was a warm, sunny day.

2

"I've never been deep-sea diving before," Ana confessed to the instructor.

3

I asked him to tidy his bedroom, but he didn't even pick his thing's up off the floor.

4

There's a museum in london I've been dying to visit; unfortunately, it's often closed.

5

David found lot's of interesting bugs under the porch at his grandma's house.

6

My mum and dad were both thirty six years old when I was born.

7

Jamila couldn't wait to go to the concert to see her favourite singer in-person.

8

"Have you really lost your PE kit again? asked Lilly's dad, raising his eyebrows.

9

I had a long nap on Sunday afternoon, but isn't that what weekends are for.

10

Richelle's french wasn't very good, but she couldn't wait to practise in Paris.

11

Stop? You mustn't cross the road just yet, there's a car coming!

12

Aya couldn't wait to get home from school and watch her favourite tv programme.

13

"Mateo, come and look at this." shouted his mum, the excitement clear in her voice.

14

Half the children at the party asked for cheese pizza and the rest asked for Hot Dogs.

15

I'd waited all year to watch the tennis final, but the match was delayed by rain.

16

Orca's are easily recognisable by their distinctive black-and-white bodies and tall fins.

17

Mo's ball was stuck in a tree, but he knew his dad—a tall strong man—would retrieve it.

18

It's Soren's favourite night of the week: movie night, and he get's to choose the movie!

19

I learned lots about animal conservation when i went to the zoo for a school trip.

20

Thank you for my new history book! It's been ages since I've studied king Henry VIII.

Punctuation

1	A	let's
2	N	no mistake
3	C	things
4	B	London
5	A	lots
6	B	thirty-six
7	D	in person
8	B	again?
9	D	for?
10	A	French
11	A	Stop!
12	D	TV
13	B	this!"
14	D	hot dogs
15	N	no mistake
16	A	Orcas
17	C	tall, strong
18	C	gets
19	C	I
20	D	King