

Match up the words with their definitions

active	constant	appalling	derelict	accurate
defective	baffled	worthwhile	curious	capable

a		useful and valuable.
b		exactly correct.
c		energetic and busy.
d		horrifying/bad.
e		puzzled and confused.
f		able to do something.
g		happening all the time and never stopping.
h		eager to find something out.
i		having a fault
j		neglected, and in ruins.

Complete the sentences using the words above

1	Although in his 80s, Geoff still has a very _____ lifestyle.
2	Lucy is more than _____ of winning the competition.
3	Freddie was _____ to see who his new form teacher would be.
4	Being able to speak Mandarin would be a _____ skill to have.
5	If you buy a new phone and it is _____ you can send it back and have it replaced.
6	The engineer from the gas company was _____ as to the cause of the explosion.
7	The old barn was _____ for years before they knocked it down and built a house.
8	Larry's weather forecast turned out to be entirely _____.
9	There is _____ noise from the heavy traffic in the city centre.
10	They had to wait outside for hours in the most _____ weather.

Match up the words with their definitions

crucial	beneficial	fatigued	content	elegant
congested	envious	courteous	fictional	biased

1		good and helpful for you.
2		having a preference for one person or team more than another.
3		blocked up and not allowing movement.
4		happy and satisfied.
5		polite and respectful.
6		vital and exceedingly important.
7		graceful and stylish.
8		wishing you could have something that someone else has.
9		extremely tired.
10		made up; not real.

Complete the sentences using the words above

1	All the roads into central London are heavily _____ during the rush hour.
2	It's absolutely _____ to visit your dentist for regular check-ups.
3	Sally found that her herbal cream was extremely _____ for her skin.
4	Emily looked very _____ in her new dress.
5	Hattie arrived home feeling cold and _____ after her week long residential trip.
6	Zain was perfectly _____ to lie in the sunshine on the beach.
7	Steve was certain that the referee was _____ towards the opposing team.
8	Ben tried not to show it, but he was very _____ of his brother's new bike.
9	Zara was always helpful and _____.
10	The book's author maintains that all his characters are entirely _____.

Match up the words with their definitions

courage	appliance	achievement	bouquet	alarm
advantage	debate	assortment	donation	agony

a		a thing completed successfully.
b		something that helps you or is useful to you.
c		great pain or suffering.
d		a sudden fear that something bad will happen.
e		a machine designed to do a particular job.
f		a mixture of different things.
g		a bunch of flowers given to someone as a present.
h		bravery or fearlessness.
i		a discussion between sides with different views.
j		something given, usually money, in aid of a good cause.

Complete the sentences using the words above

1	Rupert was in _____ after breaking his leg whilst playing rugby.
2	Jill was delighted to be given a huge _____ of tulips for her birthday.
3	Many local residents expressed _____ at the proposals for a new housing estate.
4	Mum just didn't have enough _____ to go for a ride on the rollercoaster.
5	It is a massive _____ for an athlete to win four gold medals at the Olympics.
6	Patsy was wearing a strange _____ of antique jewellery.
7	The Jones family had a heated _____ about where to go on holiday this year.
8	Dave decided to take _____ of the sunny weather and cooked on the barbeque.
9	Sam made a very generous _____ to the charity.
10	A dishwasher is a very useful _____ to have in your kitchen.

Match up the words with their definitions

appetite	extract	ailment	exterior	anguish
affection	encounter	ambition	fabric	adventure

a		an exciting experience.
b		a fondness for someone or something.
c		an illness, though not a serious one.
d		something that you really want to do.
e		a strong feeling of misery or distress.
f		a desire for food.
g		an unexpected meeting with someone.
h		the outside of something, especially a building.
i		a passage taken from a book or play or piece of music.
j		material or cloth.

Complete the sentences using the words above

1	Evie's biggest _____ was to climb Mount. Everest.
2	Grandad doesn't have much of an _____ these days; he eats very little.
3	Robert's trip to the Amazon rain forest was a thrilling _____.
4	The Raffles Hotel has some splendid architecture, both on the inside and its _____.
5	Even before he became a vet, Sid always had a great _____ for all animals.
6	Trisha was surprised to _____ her neighbour in the shop; she thought she was away.
7	Philip read an _____ from The Hobbit to the rest of the class.
8	Grannie seems to struggle with her health; she always has some _____ or other.
9	The _____ is woven on machines in factories.
10	The death of a beloved pet can cause much _____.

Vocabulary p.1

a	worthwhile
b	accurate
c	active
d	appalling
e	baffled
f	capable
g	constant
h	curious
i	defective
j	derelict
1	active
2	capable
3	curious
4	worthwhile
5	defective
6	baffled
7	derelict
8	accurate
9	constant
10	appalling

Vocabulary p.2

a	beneficial
b	biased
c	congested
d	content
e	courteous
f	crucial
g	elegant
h	envious
i	fatigued
j	fictional
1	congested
2	crucial
3	beneficial
4	elegant
5	fatigued
6	content
7	biased
8	envious
9	courteous
10	fictional

Vocabulary p.3

a	achievement
b	advantage
c	agony
d	alarm
e	appliance
f	assortment
g	bouquet
h	courage
i	debate
j	donation
1	agony
2	bouquet
3	alarm
4	courage
5	achievement
6	assortment
7	debate
8	advantage
9	donation
10	appliance

Vocabulary p.4

a	adventure
b	affection
c	ailment
d	ambition
e	anguish
f	appetite
g	encounter
h	exterior
i	extract
j	fabric
1	ambition
2	appetite
3	adventure
4	exterior
5	affection
6	encounter
7	extract
8	ailment
9	fabric
10	anguish